

Maths

Linking with our topic on food the children will be using measures in their cooking activities.

We will also continue to build upon their knowledge of addition and subtraction, and begin to examine the link between multiplication and division facts.

French

The children will continue to learn this fantastic language. They will begin to learning festive, phrases and words.

English

We will be listening to, reading and discussing a variety of non-fiction texts about food including recipes and instructions.

The children will also write their own recipes for delicious tasty treats.

P.E.

The children will be having hockey coaching to develop their skills and begin to learn how to play the game.

The children will performing gymnastic sequences exploring a range of balances using a variety of equipment.

R.E.

P.S.H.E

Computing

The children will use the World Wide Web to find out all about food and nutrition.

DT

The children will be following recipes and tasting new foods.

They will also have the opportunity to design, prepare and cook a range of healthy and festive foods.

Geography

The children will be using a range of maps, atlases and a globe to locate, where different foods are grown.

Art and Design

The children will be improving their sketching and drawing skills, as they examine a range of different fruits and vegetables.

History

We will be finding out all about James Lind and how his famous food related discovers helped mankind.